VOLUNTEER GUIDELINES

- Volunteers should complete any necessary trainings related to their specific roles or responsibilities.
- Volunteers must familiarize themselves with district policies, the school handbook, and the routines and procedures of the school.
- Volunteers are required to sign in and out at the front office and must present their volunteer identification card.
- Any information regarding students or staff that is obtained while volunteering must not be shared outside the school environment.
- If a volunteer sustains an injury on school property or while performing volunteer duties, they should promptly report it to a school administrator.
- Adherence to these guidelines is essential to maintaining a safe, supportive environment for students.
